My name is JuanJose Bastida, but prefer to go by JJ.

Helping others when they need assistance, as well as exploring new and unique facets in design and technology.

Focusing my time into exploring web code (HTML, CSS, JavaScript), typography, and design in new and interesting ways; with a recent interest and focus on making design accessible for wider audiences.

Currently speak 3 languages proficiently, and can provide another resume in that language upon request (English, Spanish, or Japanese).

To the right is a list of my scholar, work, and extra-curricular experience.
